

A crowded house greeted Hon. John Young Brown at this place Monday, and for nearly two hours he expounded the Democratic doctrine in a masterly manner; holding the closest attention of his audience, while he made unanswerable arguments. The class legislation of the past twenty-five years was shown by the speaker in all of its heinousness; the tariff question was made as simple as a primer; the Force bill was shown up in its true light; the course of Reed as speaker was compared to that of Carlisle, and the speaker drew a picture of these two men acting in their official capacity as Speaker of the House of Representatives, that a Raphael with his inspired brush could not excel; the one retiring from that honorable position with the applauds even of his political foe, and the other condemned by the people at the polls. He said that all of the vicious legislation that had crushed the farmer and laborer, and built up the millionaires was chargeable to the Republican party. From beginning to finish the speech was replete with argument. Every point touched upon was admirably elucidated. Mr. Brown is a giant on the stump, and his return to politics, at this period, is a good thing for his party and his country.

Congress assembled Monday at noon.

The public debt was increased $4,000,000.

The opening of our rich mines means another railroad.

The annual meeting of the National Farmer's Alliance is in session at Ocala, Fla.

Four bills for the free coinage of silver have been introduced in Congress since Monday at noon.

Pass that Force bill says Mr. Harrison to his Congress. Mr. Quay says no. Proceed with the fun.

An increase in the public debt of $6,130,819.51 in one month is a small affair in these piping times of peace.

Already a bill has been introduced in Congress to repeal all the measures of the tariff made by the McKinley bill.

Suit has been filed in the Supreme Court of Ohio for the revocation of the charter of the Standard Oil Company.

There is not a neighborhood in the county without mineral lands; nature has been generous in this respect. Some have iron, some coal and the others lead, zinc and spar; and all have these in abundance.

At the close of his speech in Marion Monday, Hon. John Young Brown called upon the Republicans who favored the Force bill to stand up. Nobody stood up. The Republicans of Crittenden county are prior to the Boss of Maine.

Crittenden has been moving up a scale of progress for ten years. Growth has been slow but substantial. Now that the minerals—a source of unknown wealth—are to be looked after, the forward step will be quickened.

The pension appropriation for the next fiscal year has been agreed upon by the sub-committee, and will be reported to the full committee Monday. Commissioner Raum's estimates are accepted, and the full amount asked for, granted, except that expenses for clerks, hire, fuel and light are cut down approximately 100,000. For the payment of pensions $133,173,085 is allowed, and examining surgeons $1,500,000.

War has been declared, and action has commenced. John Logan Reynolds supposes himself to be a warrior, and the Marion Monitor his tool of war. Let the battle proceed, and stand aside, ye gods, and see these two great spirits move upon the bosom of the great deep, and bring order out of the chaotic state of affairs into which the people have gotten. Pennsylvania, New York, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Indiana, Illinois; Blanche, Tray and Sweetheart, and about all of the remainder of the daughters of Zion have gone Democratic. The d—l is to pay, and the Monitor sends for John Logan R., alias "Hungry-sucker," a native of this county, (a fact, be it known to all, that the county is not proud of.) He spent some weeks in Mississippi last summer, but suddenly left a community of good people of that State for the benefit of his health, and he appears to be regarding hygienic laws yet, as he put a few hundred English miles between himself and the people about whom he pipes so kindly. "Distance lends enchantment to the view," and as the distance in this instance is great, the viewer is greatly enchanted. The peans of this sweet singer fall upon the ear like the untimely ditions of distant chimes, carried upon the wings of the soft breeze of an Italian summer's eve. "Thieves, assassins, Tories," are the charming adjectives generously applied to southern Democrats. To these we offer no objections, but there is serious charge in the effusion, and to this we enter our protest. This is the clause to which we object:

"Some of our truest and firmest friends are classed with the Democrats."

This is more than human patience can bear. If any Democrat stands so classed, he owes an apology to his country, his home and himself. "Friendship" mysterious cement of the soul.

Five Men Drowned.

Evansville, Ind., Dec. 1.—Seven men attempted to cross the river at this place to-day in a skiff; the river was very rough. When within two hundred yards of the Kentucky shore, the high waves and wind overturned the skiff, and five men were drowned; the other two clung to the skiff and were rescued by parties from the Kentucky side.

Quay on the Force Bill.

Senator Quay has expressed himself as follows:

"I am now as I have always been, against the Force Bill. It's bad politics, and if passed would defeat any party passing it. I am satisfied that if the bill should become a law in the present Congress we would lose New York in '92 by fifty, if not one hundred thousand majority. The bill is not only a bad political measure, but to a large extent financially bad. There are hundreds of millions of dollars invested by New York and the North in Southern interests. There is no good business men that does not know that the passage of such a bill would prove disastrous to the business interests of not only the South but the entire country. The elections this month have only strengthened me in my opinion that the Force bill should not be passed."

Ford's Ferry.

Married at Clay, Ky., Wednesday Nov. 26. Miss Sallie Rankin, of this place, and Mr. Thos. M. Holeman, of Webster county. Rev. T. C. Carter officiating. Mr. E. E. Newcom and Miss Ida McGill being attendants. After the ceremony Mr. Carter escorted by Mr. John McGill, followed by the bride and groom, and a host of friends were shown into the dining room where an elegant supper had been prepared, and of which every one partook of the cake and pie, and other eatables that are usually served for an occasion of that kind, until their appetites were satisfied, after which they were again invited into the parlor where they were entertained with a few choice pieces of music by Miss Becca Nunn. Sallie is an accomplished young lady, and the only daughter of A. B. Rankin. Mr. Holeman is one of Webster's young school teachers, and is highly respected by all who know him. Those who attended the wedding from this place are, Misses Ida Clement, Daisy Wilborn, Lucy Bently and Mary Heath, Uelie Sam. Heath, Messrs. Jno. Cement, R. L. Williams, R. L. and T. A. Rankin. May they never know one sorrow, may their lives be one of uninterrupted happiness, and may their hearts never throb, but with feeling of tender emotion in its wish.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington, D. C. Dec. 1, '90.—Czar Reed could not hide the chagrin he felt today when he arose to call the House to order and looked upon the numerous empty seats on the republican side. The quorum of republicans, so necessary to enable him to carry out his partisan designs, was not there. The republican bosses say they will have a quorum in a day or two, and that when the members once get here they will compel them to stay, but that remains to be seen. Talk is cheap, but it will require the presence of a quorum of republicans to pass any measure tainted in the slightest degree with politics through the house. This much has been fully determined by the democrats.

Mr. Harrison's message reads more like a partisan political harangue delivered from the stump in the midst of a heated campaign than like the calm non partisan dignified communications of an American people have a right to expect from the President of this United States. What it contains has been largely discounted ever since it was known that he had decided to act upon the advice of the most radical members of his party. It pleases the Reed, McKinley, Hoar, Cannon and Lodge element in his party; but it would be decidedly interesting to know just what such men as Senators Plumb, Paddock and Pettigrew, who voted against the McKinley abortion, which it so stoutly defends, think of it; and also to know whether they propose to continue acting with the republican party, of which Mr. Harrison is the recognized official head, against the material interests of their constituents. Interesting developments may be confidently expected during the session of Congress which began today, not the least of which will be the action of the republicans who are opposed to the McKinley tariff—there are lots of them in both House and Senate, who voted for the bill under compulsion.

Mr. Harrison, in his message, has made a desperate attempt to stem the Blaine current in his party and secure a renomination. He recognizes, as does everybody else, that if he is not nominated in 1892 he will stand before the country as rebuked by the party which nominated and elected him to the Presidency. This humiliating condition he very naturally would like to escape; hence his present efforts.

Mr. Wanamaker devotes considerable space in his annual report to his postal telegraph hobby. He also says that one cent letter postage would be a good thing, and then proceeds to throw cold water on the suggestion by inserting a lot of figures to prove what a great big deficiency it would create in the postal revenues. In plain words he thinks to humbug the people by pretending to favor one cent postage, and then makes an argument to influence Congress against giving it to us. If that isn't "cheap John" statesmanship, I should like to hear a better name for it.

Senator Quay has arrived, and before he had got the florida mud off his boots he was waited upon by a delegation of republican moguls and asked how soon he intended to resign his position as chairman of the republican national committee. He paralyzed his questioners by telling them that he had no present intention of resigning, and then coolly asking them what they proposed doing about it. This leaves the aforesaid moguls in a pickle. There is no way they can force Quay out until the next national convention names a new committee. Quay's friends, strange as it may appear he has some, say that he was anxious to retire from the head of the committee just after the Presidential election, and that the same men new want to kick him out persuaded him to remain, and that he does not intend to be frize out.

Representative Oates, of Alabama is at work upon a bill which he will shortly introduce in the House, providing for an income tax upon all annual incomes in excess of $10,000, in order to help raise the money needed to pay pensions. Col. Oates says his bill will probably not be passed by this Congress, but it will be discussed, and if public sentiment favors it, and he thinks it will, it may be passed by the Fifty-second Congress. It is absolutely certain that in the near future either the pension rolls of the Government will have to be revised and reduced or some means of raising a larger revenue adopted.

A democratic caucus will probably be held this week for the purpose of definitely deciding upon the course of the party during the present session of Congress, although it is hardly necessary, as the party in Congress is so nearly of one mind. The campaign for the speakership of the next House is practically at a stand-still, and will so remain until it is definitely known whether there is to be an extra session in the spring. Everything now points that way, but the democratic leaders would like to avoid it.

MILLIONS IN PHOSPHATE.
Capitalists eager to get hold of the Carolina Deposits.

CHARLESTON S. C., Dec. 1.—There has been considerable talk in mining and financial circles for some time of a great deal in phosphate lands. A bill was introduced in the last general assembly looking to the sale of the interest of the state in the phosphate deposits along the coast and in the rivers.

It was then said that the money so realized would be sufficient to pay the entire state debt and still leave a good surplus in the treasury. The state now pays a royalty of $1 per ton on all rocks mined from her waters. The revenue from that source amounts at present to more than $200,000 per year. Experts have calculated that the state owns in the neighborhood of 50,000,000 tons of phosphate rock. Putting that at $5 per ton, it is worth a gross value of $250,000,000.

It will cost $1 per ton to mine that rock, so the expense account can be charged up with $125,000,000, and the result is a clear profit of $125,000,000. These are tempting figures, and they have tempted many capitalists. The Georgia Mining company has enjoyed the right to mine in Coosaw now for a number of years and has reaped handsome harvests from the exclusive privileges given by its charter. That charter expires by limitation next spring and the field is open again. A hard fight will be made for the rich territory. The time is propitious and capitalists are bringing every conceivable influence to bear on the new legislature, which is a farmers' body almost entirely. The air is full of rumors of an English syndicate with fabulous wealth coming in for the state's share.

It is well known that the Mercers' brotherhood, who are now largely engaged in mining near Beaufort, have been in communication with English capitalists in reference to some such project. It is also well known that several English and Scotch agents have lately visited the phosphate territory and made as minute examinations as they could under the circumstances. All these parties have been in consultation at the office of one of the leading law firms of this city. Everything points to a big deal of some sort, but it is impossible to get anything definite about the matter. The current report is that the Englishmen have $10,000,000 that they are anxious to put into the state treasury in exchange for its interest in the river rock. No definite proposition has been made.

LOCAL BREVITIES

Marion Academy is doing fine work.
The two mills of Marion are busy as bees.
Born to the wife of R. H. Adams, Nov. 28, a girl.
A big protracted meeting is in progress at the colored church.
All descriptions of canned goods at Sisco's.
T. A. Minner went to Louisville, Friday, taking a lot of hogs for market.
Fine weather for gathering corn but there is not much of it to be gathered.
Don't forget L. N. Sisco when you want groceries, tinware, and glassware.
John Morse is the shrewdest trader in Marion; Harry Carnahan will testify to this fact.
The social given by Miss Nettie Moore last Saturday night was largely attended, and all present enjoyed themselves highly.
We have the finest line of pocket, and table cutlery and scissors in town. See our warranted knives and scissors,

Dr. T. H. Cossitt, the Dentist in Marion makes the Finest and Best Artificial Teeth on Best Rubber plates that can be made in this country at $15.00 per full set.
The O. V. is building a switch a few miles east of Marion on land purchased from Messrs King and Graves, where quarry for ballast will be quarried. The quarry is superior limestone.
G. Gregory has been appointed postmaster at Tradewater in the place of H. D. McChesney, who resigned. The latter will move to Salem and go into the dry goods business.
Mr. Louis Curry, of Morganfield, was in town last week. Mr. Curry wants the same position that Sam Nunn does—Deputy Warden of the branch penitentiary at Eddyville. He is a clever nice gentleman, but he will have to hustle if he beats Sam, who has the unanimous support of old Crittenden.

The bank building is rapidly approaching completion. The brick work is finished; John McCoy, of Princeton, put the tin roof on this week, and now the carpenter contractors—Messrs John Weldon and Geo. Boston are getting in their work in good shape. The building is an ornament to the town.
Quarterly Meeting.
The first quarterly meeting of the Marion circuit will be held at Silom next Saturday and Sunday.
Two Fingers Gone.
While working with the well drill last week, Mr. W. H. Graham accidentally got his hand in the wrong place and it was savagely mashed. One finger was mashed entirely off, and two more were badly injured.
Resigned.
Mr. John T. Franks, of Marion, has had all of the railway mail service that he wants. Four months ago he was appointed and entered upon the run from Paducah to St. Louis. Last week he tendered his resignation. "It is a tough job from start to finish," says John, "and four months will do me a lifetime."

Circuit Court
The following cases have been disposed of in Circuit Court:

J. W. Adams, Jailor.

Monday County Judge Moore appointed Mr. J. W. Adams, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Jailor Cook. The appointment is an excellent one. Mr. Adams has twice been a candidate for the office, but was each time defeated. He is an honest, hardworking man, and a deserving one, will make a good jailor. Next August the office will be filled by an election.

DEATHS.

The county Jailor W. L. Cook, died at the jailor's residence in Marion, Sunday afternoon Nov. 30. He had been in poor health for a long time and was confined to his bed for three weeks previous to his death. Three years ago he injured his hand while at work on the railroad, and suffered a great deal with it, and his health gave way under this injury and it indirectly led to his death. He leaves a wife and two little children, and a large circle of friends to mourn his demise.

Mrs. John Adams died at her home near Francis, Saturday, Nov. 29, 1890.

Prof. Brooks was called to his home at Louisville Friday by the illness of his wife.

Mrs. M. R. Gilliam is visiting her sister, Mrs. R. H. Woods, of Livingston county.

Miss Ada Gilliam spent Sunday at home. Mr. A. I. Woods, of Livingston county accompanied her home.

Prof. W. B. Davis, of Fredonia, was in town Saturday. He is teaching a successful school at Fredonia.

Mr. R. N. Walker and wife, and Mrs. M. H. Coffield went to Harrisburg, Ill., last week to visit Mr. John Mitchell's family.

Rev. S. K. Breeding accompanied Rev. S. L. Campbell, the Presiding Elder, to Salem, Saturday, where quarterly meeting was held.

Miss Nellie Dean, daughter of Dr. T. L. Dean, of Detroit, Texas, is visiting her relatives in this county. Her sister Lou is with her.

Miss Belle Paine, who has been teaching music at Marion for a number of years, left for Los Angeles, Cal., Tuesday. She has many warm friends in Marion, who regret her departure.

W. P. Clemens, of the Sheridan neighborhood, has sold his farm to T. E. Sullinger. Mr. Clemens expects to move to Texas, and Crittenden will thereby lose one of her best citizens.

F. N. Dalton has recently moved from here to Crittenden county. He purchased a farm there some time ago and has erected a new dwelling on it. Miss Mattie, his daughter, will remain here during the present term of school under the instruction of Prof. Marion, with whom she is boarding. Mr. Dalton was one of our best citizens and we regret very much to have him leave us.—Princeton Banner.

Notice to the Public.

MR. EDITOR:
Through your valuable paper I wish to say to the people in general that I understand that Mr. E. Hibbs has been telling that I am one of his music pupils, and that he taught me all I know in music. Now to those whom he has told this I can say it is a great mistake, and that they have been misled by Mr. Hibbs for I never took a music lesson from him in my life, for all the music lessons I ever took was from Miss Minnie Roberts, of Nashville, Tenn., and Mrs. Lee Robinson, now of Hampton, Ky., formerly Miss Crawford, of Marion, Ky. I took lessons from the former 8 months and the latter 3 years. The reason why I speak through the paper is because I have been asked so often when and how long I took music lessons from Mr. Hibbs. I take this method of answering all at once that I never took any lessons from at all.
Respectfully,
Susie James.

Freeman is making special prices on ladies' watches. He has a big line of elegant watches, and remember they are very, very cheap.

I wish to say to the citizens of Marion, I will furnish them with light bread, persons wishing hot rolls for supper, can leave their orders by noon, with Copher & Belt or at my residence.

Mrs. M. E. McGregor.

Salem.

P. Grassham went to Paducah on business on the 25th of Nov.

John Woods is visiting in Eddyville this week.

Corn gathering time about over in this community.

Livingston Court of Common Pleas convenes next month.

Hon. W. H. Green offers his fine farm for sale. It lies three miles from Salem and two miles from Pinkneyville. This land is of a rich loose black soil, almost as level as a floor, and situated in as fine a community as there is in the State of Kentucky. The house and stables are good, and everything about the place is conveniently arranged; all the fences are in good condition. Good water in abundance. Fine young orchard, etc. The church and school house are in a short distance of his residence and both in plain view. For price and terms call on or write to Mr. Green, at Salem. Mr. Green, has been in bad health for several years, and is not able to attend to farming duties which is his reason for wanting to sell.

Mrs. John Boaz, of Marion, was here last week selling books. She is a fine agent and done a good business here.

Gray & Alley drove some cattle to Marion two weeks ago, and while driving through the town one brindle cow ten years old, and one red heifer two years old, both unmarked, escaped from the drove and got away from them and have not been heard from since. Any information as to their whereabouts will be thankfully received, or if delivered to them the person so delivering will be paid what is right.

The Ladies Emphatically Endorse "The Swinging Treadle."

This is to certify that we the undersigned ladies of Marion, Ky., are using "Smart's Swinging Treadle," and can say with all candor that it is a grand success, being all that is claimed for it. For light running it is simply superb. While the motion is increased accurate regularity is attained. This treadle is in every way superior to the old tramping treadle.

Mrs. Nellie Leffel,
Miss George Hall,
Mrs. F. W. Loving,
Mrs. Mattie Walker,
Miss Laura Bogard,
Mrs. Johnnie Haynes,
Mrs. Bettie Henry,
Miss Emma Adams,
Mrs. Flora A. Bennett,
Miss Jennie Clark,
Miss Lou C. Field,
Mrs. Anna Dorr.

Now gentlemen the article we offer bears the test of the most critical observers. Milliners, dress makers, and ladies who are fully versed in the sewing art, say that the "Swinging Treadle" is precisely the success that is claimed for it by the parties who have the territory to dispose of. Having all confidence that the treadle is in every way a most valuable improvement and will sell to the people on its merits, we have not been reluctant or backward in allowing any one to put the treadle to an actual and practical test. The territory on this treadle is now being closed out on the most reasonable terms. For particulars call on J. N. Hayden, at the Coffield House, Marion, Ky.

Watch chains a specialty at Freeman's; the greatest variety, the best goods and the lowest prices are his "watch" words now.

For the best candies, and the largest assortment of the finest chewing gum in Marion at Sisco's.

Have you seen that beautiful jewelry at Freeman's. It can not be beat in quality, quantity and prices.

Silverware in great abundance, all kinds, all prices, all styles at Freeman's; and remember that it is cheaper than ever before.

The Louisville Market.

We have had another strong week in the tobacco market. Offerings have not been heavy and buyers seemed to have a place for all offered. Good and fine Burley is growing scarcer and harder to buy every week and for these grades the market is decidedly stiff and strong—medium and lower grades are fairly steady and when in good condition meet with active demand. The plenty of out-of-order common tobacco being offered and buyers feel that they can get that kind at any time and seem in no special hurry to load up. Common lugs and trash are easy at quotations.

Dark tobacco is without change. Some of the holders of dark, express a more hopeful feeling for these types in the near future, but it is more because of the reduction of stocks than of any present improvement in bidding.

New crop is moving very slowly. The receipts this week were even less than last week up to time of closing this report. There is not enough yet being offered to fairly test the market.—Farmers Home Journal.

Louisville Tobacco Market.

Sales on our market for the week just closed amount to 1,875 Hhds with receipts for the same period of 772 Hhds, sales on our market since Jan. 1st, amount to 123,219 Hhds. Sales of the crop of 1890 on our market to this date amount to 127 Hhds.

Up to this time 127 hogsheds of the crop of this year have been sold on our market. Several hogsheds of the better grades of dark leaf have sold at prices ranging from $5 to $7. Our market has shown rather more activity this week for all grades of old dark tobacco.

The following quotations represent our market for dark tobacco crop of 1889.

Trash ..... 50c @ 1.00
Common Lugs ..... 150 @ 2.00
Dark lugs extra quality 2.00 @ 4.00
Good " ..... 2.50 @ 3.50
Common Leaf ..... 3.50 @ 5.00
Medium " ..... 5.00 @ 6.50
Good " ..... 6.50 @ 8.50
Fine " ..... 8.00 @ 12.00

Freedom.

We would like to know why the members of the church call a pastor and fail to go hear him preach. Rev. Belt has appointments at this place.

Our neighbor church, Bethel, is having a grand and successful revival. Revs. Atchison and Franks are able ministers, and are doing some good work.

Widow Hughes lost a fine young horse a few nights ago.

Some unknown persons throwed rocks against the church during services a few week ago. Look out boys, the grand jury is in session.

Farmers are talking of posting their lands; sportsmen are getting too numerous.
